THERE will be a Christmas tree at the Presbyterian church and the doors will be open at 6:30 Monday evening. Everybody invited.

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL representative will be at Lancaster court Monday. Be sure to see him if you are behind with your subscription.

It is J. M. Carter, "Sr." not "Jr.," who is a candidate for the democratic nomination for sheriff. Our types made us say the latter in last issue.

ALTHOUGH they have raised a family of nine children, Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Newland have never had a cradle and never found use for one. They taught their children to sleep without rocking, saving the parents a world of trouble.

HORRIBLE.—The four-year-old child of Jack Eckler, of the Highland section, caught fire while her mother was gone to the spring and was burned almost to a crisp. This should be a warning to those mothers who leave their children alone in rooms where there are fires.

AN effort is being made to get that splendid democrat, Judge W. M. Myers, of Hustonville, to announce for State Senator. Having lived in Casey all his life until a few months ago, he would be thoroughly acceptable to the democracy of that county, while he would carry Lincoln like a flash. If he can be induced to run he would have very little trouble in securing the nomination.

BARLOW & WILSON'S minstrels met with a royal reception at Lohman's opera house. The orchestra is first-class and the singing the best heard here this season. Judging from the hearty laughter and applause it provoked, the show was generally appreciated. Barlow & Wilson's minstrels are always welcome.—Jefferson City, Mo., Tribune. At Walton's Opera House, tomorrow, Saturday night. Secure seats at McRoberts' drug store.

DAWSON.—Mrs. Elizabeth A. Dawson died yesterday morning of pneumonia, aged 69. She had been an invalid for 17 years and had never walked a step during that time. She was a good woman, a kind mother and a true friend and those who knew her best loved her most. Four grown sons survive her and in their great loss they have the sympathy of all. After services at her late home on the Danville pike at 9 o'clock this morning by Elder Joseph Ballou the remains will be interred in the family burying ground.

SUES FOR $25,000 DAMAGES.—Randall Cook, of this county, thinks the INTERIOR JOURNAL has damaged him to the extent of $25,000 and has brought suit against Mr. W. P. Walton, its former owner, for that amount. He has chosen Rockcastle as the county to sue in, but his object for going out of his home county, where he is best known, is of course not explained in the paper served on Mr. Walton last week. Certainly that county is not more convenient and equally certain is it that he could get all the justice he wants here, for there is not a more competent judge in the State than Judge Sauley and our juries are always made up of good, fair minded men. The publication which Mr. Cook thinks is so hurtful to him appeared in this paper Dec. 12, 1899, and was in reference to a trip he made to Frankfort in the troublesome times. The suit has been talked of for some time, but it seems that the "wounded man" has had some trouble in securing the desired legal talent. Bethurum & Bethurum represent him.

FRUITS of every kind. J. H. Meier.

NEW line of Rookwood pottery at Hamilton's.

BLACK cakes on hand and made to order. J. H. Meier.

DON'T fail to see the 10c counter. George H. Farris & Co.

LARGEST stock of Xmas goods ever in Stanford at Hamilton's.

OUR loss your gain: 1/2 off on cloaks this week. Severance & Sons.

THE goods you want at the right prices are at Penny's Drug Store.

THE schools will all close this afternoon and the children will spend a week of pleasure.

WE have a nice assortment of Xmas dishes. Save your money to see us. Higgins & McKinney.

REMEMBER the declamatory contest at Walton's Opera House Christmas night. Go and tell your friends to do likewise.

M. G. REYNOLDS, candidate for assessor, has resigned as committeeman in Waynesburg precinct, No. 1, and his successor will be elected Jan. 5.

FRIENDS and patrons of Stanford Female College are invited to the elocutionary entertainment by Miss Flora Ballou's class there at 7:30 this evening.

500 CHRISTMAS DOLLS to select from of all kinds, sizes, colors and prices. Other Christmas goods in proportion. Books, Games, Sundry Gifts, Ebony Toilet Articles, etc. Craig & Hocker.

JAMES FRYE, of Hustonville, sends us word that he is too busy selling goods to write a change for his advertisement. He gives the "ad" in this paper a good deal of the credit for being so busy.

GOOD SCHOOL.—A friend hands in the following: Mrs. W. P. Reynolds' school at Clear Fork, which has been a success in every respect, closed Friday. The entertainment given that night was pronounced very fine. It was for the benefit of the library.

CHARLES L. DAWES, who has friends all over the county, announces for assessor in this issue, subject to the action of the democracy. Besides being a dyed-in-the-wool democrat and a clever gentleman, Mr. Dawes has had experience as deputy assessor and is well qualified for the office. He is the youngest of the candidates for assessor and as this is a day of young men, he may prove an important factor in the race.

THE Bastin Telephone Company, recently incorporated with a capital stock of $25,000, has purchased the Crab Orchard, Stanford and Mt. Vernon lines, the Lancaster Exchange and Garrard county lines, including three exchanges and 200 miles of toll lines. The company is already at work putting up lines into new territory and improving their system. It has headquarters at Lancaster and the lines reach into Pulaski, Lincoln, Boyle, Rockcastle, Madison, Garrard, Laurel and other counties.

BLEDSE.—After a long and well-spent life, that prince of gentlemen, Mr. John S. Bledsoe, passed into the great beyond at 3:30 Tuesday afternoon, surrounded by a loving daughter, a fond son-in-law, grand-children who literally worshipped him and a few intimate friends. He was in his 78th year and in that long time if he ever did a wrong deed or caused unnecessary pain to a living being, those who knew him can not recall it. He was a smooth, even-tempered gentleman, as modest as a woman but as gallant as men get to be. He was a Chesterfield in manner and the world would be better if there were more like him. Mr. Bledsoe was born in Cumberland county but moved with his father to Christian county early in his boyhood and remained there for years. Just as the war closed he started to Canada, but when he got to Louisville the news came that Gen. Lee had surrendered and he gave up his trip and decided to continue to reside in Kentucky. He ran a store successfully at Keene and later at Hustonville where he met Judge James P. Bailey, who afterward became his son-in-law. The two have lived under the same roof for 30-odd years and during all that time there was never an unkind or hasty word uttered between them. Each admired the other and no son ever respected a father more than Judge Bailey did the fine old gentleman who Wednesday afternoon was laid to rest in Buffalo cemetery, after impressive ceremonies at the Christian church by Eld. Joseph Ballou. A half century ago Mr. Bledsoe married Miss Maria Louise Sharpe, who died nearly five years ago, and two children blessed their union, one of which died in its infancy; the other is now passing under the rod of deepest sorrow. May He who doeth all things well comfort her and others who have suffered the loss and cause them to realize that their loss is his eternal gain. A good man has gone to his reward; let the splendid example he set be emulated. We heartily agree with Eld. Ballou, who said in his funeral discourse that Mr. Bledsoe "was a christian gentleman; enough to say about any man."

BOB WILSON, charged with being with the Leasure boys when they detained Miss Sallie Crabtree, was arrested in the South End of the county yesterday.

G. S. ELKIN, of Lincoln county, drove over to Lexington in a wagon yesterday, bringing 100 geese, 100 old hens and 100 ducks for the Christmas market, but found it so dull that he could not dispose of them at a profit.—Lexington Democrat.

A WELL pleased audience was in Greenwall's Opera House last night to enjoy the minstrel performance of the Barlow combination. They are always popular in Columbus, and they sustained their reputation by presenting a high-class program. The extensive repertoire included many new songs, and the wit and the jokes of the company kept the audience in a good humor for two hours and a half. The company includes several stars. The specialty work of Barlow & Wilson was especially good. It is one of the best minstrel companies on the road, and as good as will be seen here this year.—Columbus, O. State Journal. At Walton's Opera House tomorrow, Saturday night. Secure your seats now at McRoberts' drug store.
